

Ms. Josephine Berkley

November 30, 1941 - March 2, 2023

Mrs. Josephine Berkley (nee Stuckey), widow, 81, of Fayetteville, NC died peacefully in her sleep at home on March 2, 2023. She was born in Wyatt, Missouri on November 30, 1941, the 16th child of Elihue Stuckey and Ella Mae Stuckey (nee Johnson). Josephine was married on November 24, 1965 to Clarence Berkley in Chicago Illinois. She is survived by her children, Kimberley, Alexandria and Brian (Crystal) Berkley, all residents of Fayetteville, NC. Josephine is also survived by siblings Frances McIntyre of Naperville, IL, Louise Rucker of Chicago, IL and Elmer Stuckey of Country Club Hills, IL along with three generations of nieces and nephews.

Josephine became a baptized member of the Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in February of 1975. She spent a number of years in the full-time ministry, regularly helping others learn about the Bible and God's Kingdom. She spent many hours reading and studying the Bible and Bible based publications. In addition, she read works of fiction, particularly of the mystery genre. Josephine enjoyed spending time with family and friends, cooking, sharing meals and playing card games. Friends and family particularly loved her pound cake and sweet potato pie. She now rests in Jehovah's memory awaiting resurrection in a world under Theocratic rule with a perfect mind and body.

For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive.¹
Corinthians 15:22

Tribute Wall

“ To Kim, Sandy, and Brian: I will cherish the times I spent with your mother in the ministry when we were pioneering. Josie was always upbeat, had a positive attitude and kept me encouraged with her great sense of humor. I know I will see my friend again in God's New World.

Claudette Skanes - March 13, 2023 at 08:10 PM