“ My sister was an awesome woman of God! I changed her diapers as a baby and held her hand as a toddler. Gave her advise as a teenager, helped with her journey enrolling into College, She eventually became my best friend. I loved her dearly. She always wanted to marry and have twins. but plans turned out differently. She had a beautiful daughter named Larisa, who looks like Danyelle. I can now lavish my love onto my niece. Thank you Danee for all the wonderful memories. Attending Bible school together was the best journey ever. Even being in the hospital with you as you began your fight against colon cancer. You were always smiling and speaking the word. and then you decided to go home, and I understood, I wanted a different outcome but it was your life and I agreed finally to let you go. I smile every time I see your picture knowing that we will once again meet in heaven. See you there Danee, love u much baby sister.

“ Danyelle, a.k.a. Diva Dany, my heart is heavy as I try to form the words goodbye. I thank God for the time I've known you and the time spent with you. You were always a joy and an inspiration to me an to those who knew you.

You are so missed and I must admit I was not ready to part ways from you on this side. I know our God knows best, for you always belonged to Him. God has received His precious jewel back and we are left with many wonderful thoughts of you. Thank you for being a true friend, an awesome and loving sister, and a kind and meek person all around. You no longer have to reach beyond the stars and the moon, you have surpassed it all. Continue to dance on the streets of gold while we continue to dance on this side, in Honor of God and the time allowed with you.

Love Always,

TO

“ Danyelle, words cannot express how thankful we are for you being my sister, friend, and the boys' God mother! We thank God for the words of wisdom, love, and compassion for over 20 years that you imparted in our lives without reservation. Yes, we miss you beyond measure, but knowing that you are in heaven gives us peace that surpasses all human understanding. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord!!!
