“ Nurse Karen had a calling to serve and care for others. She possessed kindness, strength, dedication, compassion, understanding and more. Nurses are Angels who cushion our sorrows and celebrate our joys. Karen was one of our Angels at First Baptist Church. She will be missed.

“ Karen was such a lovely person ... a kind and beautiful soul. To the family ... I am so sorry she is no longer with us, but hold on to all of the special memories she created with you. May God bless you during this time and strengthen you each day ahead. We will miss her, her radiant smile, and genuine display of God's love in her heart. Karen definitely made this world a much better place for many. Rest in peace, Karen.

“ So sorry to hear about Karen’s passing. I have known Karen since third grade. We went to nursing school together and she was also in my wedding. We kept in touch throughout the years, although infrequently. But When we did speak it was like the years melted away and we had just seen each other yesterday. I will remember her as a beautiful person, very independent, hard working, creative, and strong ... an individual who loved her family very much. I pray that God will comfort you the family during this time of sorrow. Gone too soon.
