

Ms. Katie Bell Brown

February 4, 1940 - September 21, 2021

On Tuesday, September 21, 2021 God called for his beloved daughter Katie McLeod Brown. Katie was born February 4, 1940 to the late Ernest and Haster McLeod in Linden North Carolina.

Katie graduated from Anne Chestnut High School and received an Associates Degree in Horticulture from FTI. She was well known for her love of plants. Katie retired from Black and Decker as a line supervisor with over 30 years of service. For the last 30 years she invested her life fulfilling an entrepreneurial spirit renting properties and other business ventures. Known in the community as the no nonsense (Katie B). She was admired by neighbors and friends. She loved God and was an active member of South End Missionary Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her ex-husband Oscar Lee McLaurin Sr, and son Oscar Lee McLaurin, Jr. She leaves a legacy of love: children, Donald "Ricky" McLaurin, Marilyn Graham (Glenn), Carolyn Teresa McLaurin. Grandchildren Reginald Jamel McLaurin, Monica Matrice Graham, Meaghan Monet Graham, Donald McLaurin Jr, Nyeshia McLaurin. Great grandchildren Nyle Alexander Tompkins, and Jaiden Armani Powers, Noah McLaurin and Nyhiem McLaurin. Beloved business mentor and friend Annie Bell Mckoy and a host of family and friends.
