

Mr. Kenneth McLaughlin

February 23, 1964 - November 21, 2020

Kenneth “Kenny” McLaughlin was born to the late Lacy Carver and Mary McLaughlin on February 23, 1964, at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center in Fayetteville North Carolina. He was a devoted son, husband, father, brother, uncle, cousin and friend. On November 21, 2020, our Lord and Savior saw fit to call this angel home.

Kenny attended Terry Sanford High School, where he played football, basketball, and baseball. After graduating in 1982, Kenny was employed by the City of Fayetteville. After retiring, he became a mentor and athletic coach at Myers Recreational Center to many youths throughout Fayetteville area. Coach Kenny, as he was most commonly known, loved each and every one of his players as if they were his own children. On January 13, 1998, Kenny joined in holy matrimony the love of his life, Sabrina DeBerry.

Preceding Kenny in death are his parents, Lacy Carver and Mary McLaughlin; one brother, Larry McLaughlin; one sister, Vernella McLaughlin; mother-in-law, Betty D. Swint and father-in-law, Kenneth Walker.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife of 22 years, Sabrina D McLaughlin; three daughters, Shabri, Kenijah and Javayah; four grandchildren, Hamourii, Zakera, Jaylah and Curley III; one godson, Henry Malik Johnson all of Fayetteville, North Carolina; one sister, Virginia Ann McLaughlin of Tennessee; three sisters-in-law, Cindy Johnson, Samantha Phelps both of Fayetteville, North Carolina and Qausheba Hardiman of Maryland; two aunts, Martha Wade of Grays Creek, North Carolina and Lydia Robinson of Lumberton, North Carolina; father-in-law, Willie Thompson of Pittsburgh; and a host of family and friends.

“ In loving memory to my daddy, one of the best coaches around Fayetteville; known as the man with the gray truck 🚚. You see that truck you already know who in it Coach Kenny , my daddy was loved so dearly by his family & friends. If I could sit and write a whole book about my father then I will he was filled with so much joy. I miss the good old days to where he use to come home with fresh picked blueberries about the size of a grape & as a kid I was ready for them. My daddy was a good man he never meant no harm towards anything or anybody he had a soft spot in his heart..... he was too good of a guy & if you mist-racks with him then here come his his wife Sabrina the lil lady who's known to making folks laugh & smile. My mother loved my pops & only wanted right for him she knew they needed each other & had a family to take care of even though they were sick. I remember the times to where she was blind & told nobody but still made a way to take care of all 9 of us. They made sure everything was straight, we couldn't want for nothing we had everything we wanted. I love my daddy & miss his bright smile & joyful words he is forever in our hearts. It's about to be 3 years on November 21 2023 & I still can't believe your not here it jus feels like a nightmare that won't go away. But all in all Ive made it to college daddy, I did it, doing big things like y'all taught me ! I really miss your presence pops my heart is missing something ! I LOVE YOU MAN! LONG LIVE YOU! Until we meet again sleep well pops 📄🕊️.

“ I met Mr. Kenny when I moved to Fayetteville from DC a lil’ over a year ago. He was a good dude who let me know about all the cool spots to hit up in Fayetteville. We talked about going fishing and I’m sad that never happened due to this Corona mess.

I’m gonna miss our talks. You told me about all the COUNTRY foods to eat and stuff to do. Like eating “boiled peanuts” and “pork skins” and picking fresh blueberries. I’m from the city and the only fruit I picked was at the grocery store!

*For the short time I’ve known Mr. Kenny, he proved himself to be a man who loved and cared for his family. That to me, made him a FIRST CLASS DUDE!

He will be missed, but He will FOREVER live in the hearts of all those who knew and loved him.

To Ms. Sabrina and family I send my most sincere condolences to you all. You are all in my prayers.

RIP Mr. Kenny
