

Mr. Keonte Shakir Forney

June 1, 1996 - July 2, 2024

Keonte Shakir "BigSo" Forney was born June 1st, 1996, to Fletcher Eugene Taylor and Stephanie Renee Forney. Keonte graduated from Fayetteville Technical Community College and later went on to pursue an education in I.T. at Wake Forest University.

In 2015, Keonte welcomed his first child, Camari E. Forney into the world. He later went on to welcome three more beautiful children" Atreus, Ameyia and Anais Forney. Keonte loved music. He took up a hobby in rapping in his spare time. Rapping is where he gained the name, BigSo. He also loved to cook. More importantly, he cherished his family and loved God. His favorite scriptures were Psalms 91, Psalms 23 and Psalms 100.

Keonte was a hard worker. He believed in being a provider for his family. At the time of his transitioning, he was working as a forklift driver for Food Lion Distribution. Previous to that he was working as a construction worker traveling to many places for the company Bradshaw Construction Corp.

He was very loving and ALWAYS smiling. He had a smile that would light up a room and the cutest pair of dimples to match. He had a heart of gold. To know Keonte, was to love Keonte.

Keonte was preceded in death by his sister Daquanya Jhonte Forney, great grandfathers, James C. Forney and Ervin Short. Great grandmothers Leola Gibbs and Ruby Short, grandfathers James Edward Forney and Apostle Fletcher D. Taylor, Grandmother Mary Howell, Uncles Marshall Forney, Butch and Melvin Howell, Ervin and John C. Short and Aunts Wilma Jean Forney, Deanna Howell, and Indell Campbell.

Keonte left to cherish his memories his children, Camari, Atreus, Ameyia and Anais Forney, his mother Stephanie Shorter (Lonnie), Father Fletcher Taylor (Sibyl), Grandmother Apostle Corine S. Taylor Great Grandmother Georgia Forney, a sister Keona Forney, brothers: Jaquez and Tyleek Taylor, Uncles James Santana Forney (Tina) and Benjamin "Mickey" Taylor (Natalie), Aunts Tasha McClarrin and Tanya Goolsby (Pedro), the mothers of his children Callie Leming and Nika Lewis, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

“ I didn't know Keonte as a young man, however I knew him when he was a growing up. Always happy, full of laughter, and truly loved by his family. May God give his family and friends peace and understanding through this difficult time and going forward. The Forney's and the Taylor's will continuously remain in my thoughts and prayers.
