“ Mostly I remember Kim being at my grandparents house in the Bronx. He and Uncle Pep were always around with my father. I wish him the best.

“ With a bowed head and tender, tender heart I lay these words of sorrow and remembrance of such a special and loving soul... His name is Kim and I called him, Cousin Honey.

I will miss the consistency of your warm and knowing smile. Not too mention how you always managed to laugh and make me laugh - even in the blinding face of pain...

You shall remain a vision of kindness and acceptance. The first time we were introduced you welcomed me into your inner group and you to mine.

We braved the trails of our youth and you watched me as a young, hopeful and determined mother to my boys.

A true and loyal friend if ever there was one, only to cement the ties and become a loving part of my family. And, here we have arrived and I am sorry... So sorry because I will miss you forever and a day.

I pray as you journey and trust that you rest in power and comfort forever and evermore.

Thank you for you and your everlasting smile in laughter.

Warmly and affectionately yours,

Ferdina

“ Our hearts are heavy as we mourn the passing of our 1st cousin and nephews, Kim. We never had enough time together but he always made an effort to reach out to Uncle Tobe. Lee, Barbara, Donald, and Uncle Tobe will keep Kim alive in our hearts. May God's grace and comfort give you peace. With our deepest sympathy. The Liles Family.
