“ *Mrs. Jones,
Truly my heart and prayers are with you and Kim's family. It's after 7:00 PM 22 May and this notification just became apparent, so it's not possible for me to be there to extend my sympathies in person.
Praying that God grants you peace and grace.*

“ I met Kim and that beautiful smile at Johnson C. Smith University. Soon we became sorors and she was always shining. 15 years later her smile came across a phone contact when I was having a difficult time. She assured me I would be looking at this as just a bump in the road. She was right. I am so grateful to have known such a beautiful person both inside and out.

“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ My fondest memory of Ms. Kim was during Thanksgiving Season of 2010. See I am an Alumni of Family Treatment Court, and of course Ms. Kim called us her babies. But anyway, to make a long story short, if it was not for her GRACIOUS, LOVING and KIND Spirit, my children and I Would NOT have had Thanksgiving Dinner that year. During the previous Family Treatment Court Session before that Thanksgiving Holiday, I had told her about my concern and worry over how I was going to purchase enough food for myself and 4 children. Ms. Kim knew something was off about me that session, and again, pulled me to the side and inquired about the problem and how could she help. Even though I did not ask her, Ms. Kim told me not to worry about Thanksgiving Dinner because her Husband and Herself ALWAYS helped a certain number of families each year at Thanksgiving by purchasing their Thanksgiving Dinner. I WILL NEVER FORGET That Act of Kindness. It was truly one of the Most Generous things anyone has ever done, not just for me. but for my Children Also. That is just one of the many memories I have of her, and I must say, not one of those memories contain an Absent Smile on Ms. Kim's face. God Bless HER Spirit, Soul, and Memory, and Prayers for Comfort and Our Sincerest Condolences to Her HUSBAND & FAMILY. She is LOVED & Greatly MISSED!!!!

Sincerely,
Rhonda Jones & Children

“ Kim was a star shining bright and wondrous in a midnight sky. She had a beauty which radiated from the depths of her soul and transcended the physical. This was evident in her ever present smile and her laugh which would bubble to the surface deep from within her belly.

She was one of the first people I met in the Honors Program at Smith and was the lone voice I heard calling out my name above the cacophony of strangers on the first day of law school. To turn around and see her standing there with that pretty smile on her face gave me more comfort than she could ever possibly know. Seeing my fellow Smithite let me know that I wasn't alone as I embarked on a new journey. She was always there with a kind word of encouragement or simply a hand to hold when needed. To know Kim is to love Kim and be loved in return.

I wish Kim a peaceful journey and pray that her family finds solace in the fact that she is resting with her father and all of her friends and loved ones who have gone on before her.

“ I am a co worker from DSS and I met Kim. She a smile that made your day. We would usually go in the building together in the mourning and as she went her way and I went my way, she would always tell me have a bless day. When I went to work Monday I miss our little walk together. I am going to miss her smile and her big heart. To her family I will be very grateful for knowing Kim. May God continue to bless and keep you . Love Vanessa Faulk

“ Kim was a beautiful person. She was kind and decent to everyone. In a profession not known for kindness at times, she defied those stereotypes. The legal profession, the community, your family and friends have lost a shining star. I will miss you. You are gone too soon but we will see you again one day. Debbie Baker Raeford NC
