

Ms. Krystina Shantese Thomas

January 21, 1996 - January 28, 2021

Krystina Shantese Thomas, affectionately known as “Kryssie” or “Tina”, daughter of Stacie Thomas and Shawn “Chris” Davidson, was born January 21, 1996 in Washington, DC. The Heavenly Gates opened from above on January 28, 2021 and God sent down his precious angel to bring Krystina home.

Krystina was educated in the DC and Prince George’s County Schools. In 2015, she moved to NC. She adopted Haymount Presbyterian Church as her spiritual home. There she participated in all church activities when her health permitted. Krystina had a smile that would light up a room and she loved to take pictures which earned her the nickname of “DIVA”.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories, her mother and father; sisters, Mykel, Tiara, Diedre, Makayla and McKenzie; brothers, Deshawn, Jaime, Shawn Jr. and Nehemiah; her nephews that she loved dearly, Antonio Gross, Jr. and Kael Gross; her maternal grandmother, Darlene Thomas, her paternal grandmother, Ocie Potts and her paternal grandfather, Phillip Davidson; her best friend, Ashley Smith and her beloved adopted grandfather, “Mr. Dannie” McCallum; a host of aunts and uncles; her loving Haymount Presbyterian Church family and other relatives and friends.

Krystina will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

“ I remember the time I first met her when she was just a baby. She was full of life and love, truly a fighter. I am deeply saddened that I did not witness the true fulfillment of her potential that I believe she would have achieved in this life. I know God has a plan that you or I would never understand. So I will cherish the blessing that God gave me through her presence in human form and I will carry that blessing throughout the days God has given me on this earth. I love you my sister in life Stacie and and my niece and nephew More than you can ever imagine. I pray that you all find solace in God during your time of sorrow. Xoxo

“ So Many Memories....

You were the daughter that Mond and I never had. I would tell your mom how I wasn't going to let her have you back all the time lol. The movie nights, summer vacations ,weekends, cooking lessons, days and nights swimming and talking in the pool and so, so many more memories... I will miss you my little angel. I still can't accept this reality... all I see is your smile and that infectious laugh.... I'm thankful I got to talk to you and I will forever hold onto those last words.... " I love you too Aunt Jess". Stacie, Kelly and Jamie my heart breaks with you guys and I love you all.

“ I dont have the words to express how hard this hit me. I was shocked and hurt. You were always happy no matter what you were going through. A great Daughter, Sister, Aunt and wonderful friend and a soldier at all times. You were a true fighter and I know you are no longer suffering and at peace. I will miss you dearly and you will forever be in my heart.

“ In Memory of Kristina..

I reflect on the day I met Kristina sweet little self on Corcoran Street, Washington DC. Maybe around 4 or 5 years old. She had a lot of energy. She was tough... and sweet at the same time. Kristina just melted my heart day one. I remember I was about to go somewhere... and she just jumped in the car and said... “I am going.” I was like “Krissy go let your Mom know.. I just can’t take you with out asking.” She was like, “she will not mind... you nice and kind... but me I said “no ask your Mom first”. She made herself right at home when she visited and was just like family.

You will always hold a special place in my heart that I will always cherish. Your strength and will power have shown me what a True Warrior is... You have gained your wings - no more pain... Rest on my dear child... You will always be my Baby Girl.

Sherlean*
