“ I regret that I was out-of-town for the service, but I send my heartfelt condolences.

I worked with Lacy for 25 years, and was always happy to see his smile. When I was a young Pathologist he helped me acclimate to Cape Fear Valley, and I will always be grateful for his assistance, but Lacy was more than a colleague. He was also a friend and I will never forget visiting him once at his home, and the many occasions that we shared thoughts and opinions. On several occasions we exchanged gifts, and a wood carved cane he gave me will always be cherished, although I haven't needed it use it yet. I visited him during his final hospital stays, and he seemed at peace and without pain and for that I am thankful. I know the family can take comfort in the legacy and example that Lacy leaves them. His family was always the most important thing in his life.

“ My prayers are with Lacy's family today. I share your sorrow. He was a friend and coworker of mine for many years. Lacy affected the lives of many people in a positive way. Always friendly and helpful and well dressed, Lacy would brighten our days. He could be counted on when needed. I miss him, but I know he is in God's care.
