

Mr Ladrell Ryihad King

May 6, 2002 - June 7, 2020

Ladrell Ryihad Wallace King was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina on May 6th, 2002. Ladrell departed this life and went home to glory on June 7th, 2020. Ladrell was an honor roll student who was very humble, supportive, and helpful, he always encouraged others and forever had a smile on his face. He held no grudges.

Ladrell loved watching and playing basketball since he was five years old. He played Varsity Basketball for Southview High School where he “The King” wore #35 with great esteem. Southview High School has retired his jersey #35 and it will hang in the gym at Southview High School. #35 will always belong to the KING! He loved and admired Russell Westbrook. His favorite basketball teams were the UNC Chapel Hill Tarheels and Oklahoma City Thunder.

Memories from his grandmother: “Ladrell was worry free, heartfelt, and a humble being, always willing to be available to help.”

Uncle Rico: “Will miss the times in the gym during the summers when they practice basketball moves, going to the gym training, talking about life and goals, it has been my pleasure to be a part of my nephew's life seeing him growing into an incredible young man."

Mom: "Will miss the check-ins during the day when he would come into her room and say, "Mom are you okay, I love you" and go back to his room. This would occur several times throughout the day."

Ladrell leaves to cherish his precious memories: mother, Shinderia Takell Moneak Odom; father, Lydell Wallace King; sisters, Malaysia Frazier and Nya King; brother, Lydell King Jr.; uncle, Rico Odom and Lamonte King; great aunt, RoKeema Harris (Aunty Keema); grandparents, Peggy Odom-Galespie; step grandfather, Walter Roberts; niece, Alaiya Jenrette; nephews, Kaidyn Jenrette and Marcus Armour, a host of friends and family he has left behind.
