

Mr. Lee Vernon McNeill

December 2, 1964 - September 29, 2021

On Wednesday, September 29, 2021, our gracious and mighty God, saw a different plan for our humble and beloved athlete, Lee Vernon McNeill.

Affectionally called “Verna” by his family. Our Father sent an angel to Cape Fear Medical Center to bring him home, to rest and be loved and be in peace. Lee was born on December 2, 1964 in Robeson County to Charlie and Nellie McNeill of St. Pauls NC.

Lee was a humble and yet modest man who often gave more of himself than what was expected to receive. He always had a smile on his face, knew how to brighten up a day with his sense of humor, and joking demeanor. Lee had a huge heart for helping other and he had a huge passion for track and field. Lee was a dedicated employee at Amazon, along with Bojangles where he served over 30 years. He was also a track and field coach and mentor of Soaring Eagles Track Club, where he spent a lot of his time training the youth within the community. Lee will be remembered by his humbleness, along with his hard work, dedication, amazing talents and abilities. He will also be mostly remembered as a Son, Brother, Father, Cousin, Nephew, Uncle, Grandfather, Mentor, and Coach. Lee you will be deeply missed.

Preceding Lee in death, his father, Charlie E. McNeill, one sister, Mary “Pam” McNeill, one half-brother, William Smith and nephew, Quinton R. McNeill. He leaves to cherish his memories a daughter, Leia V. Davis (Charlotte, NC), two sons, Lee Vernon McNeill Jr. (Laurinburg, NC), and Jheran D. Edwards-McNeill (Greenville, NC) and his mother Nellie McNeill (St. Pauls, NC); two sisters, Janice M. Harrell (Wayne Harrell) of St. Pauls, NC, and Tasha R. Simpson (Mikel Simpson) of Garner, NC, and one half-sister, Charlene Smith, of Fayetteville, NC. Four brothers Charlie "Rick" McNeill, of St. Pauls, NC, Eugene McNeill (Katina McNeill) of Greenville, NC, and Jerry L. McNeill of Fayetteville, NC. Two grandchildren, Zy'meria and Admire Edwards, of Greenville, NC and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, mentees and friends who loved and adored him greatly.

“ Lee was my buddy and my personal mechanic. I could call him anytime and we was always willing to help me. Sometimes his voice-mail would be full but he always called me back. He was funny, humble, determined, and hard-working. He was always lending a helping hand to someone. I said his name and prayed for him every day when I found out he was in the hospital. He was a true friend and will be missed dearly. Rest Easy Buddy 🤍🙏🕊️

“Lee is, was and will always be my friend and my brother. I've been blessed to have known him. Funny , helpful, and humble are just a few words to describe him. He sat by my side during my extensive stay in the hospital and I wish I could have sat by his side during his. I will truly miss him. You don't get many friends in this life. To his family... my heart goes out. I can only imagine what you're going through.
