“ To Albert and all the Anderson family, may I offer my deepest condolences. We (the Hawkins) along with the Andersons, the McKeithans, the Bests, the Blacks, the Kings, and the Allen's, were the pioneers of the "Seabrook Hill" Community that grew to be known as "Broadell"! We were a close-knit group of friends, who remained close throughout our lives. In fact, Lem gave the eulogy at my brother, Quentin's services. It was Lem who introduced us to the world of the "Trail Riders" and the fun those outings provided. Now he has ridden off into that last sunset and I pray his ride be smooth and the rv always full of gas!! "Happy Trails" cowboy!! Brian Hawkins & Bonita. Smith!!
