

Mr. Leroy Davis Jr.

September 3, 1963 - May 27, 2025

Leroy Davis Jr. (September 3, 1963 – May 27, 2025) was a devoted husband, loving father, and the kind of person who made everyone feel welcome. Born of Leroy Davis Sr. and Barbara Owens, and raised in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Leroy had a heart for helping others—whether it was saving lives in the ocean, pulling over to assist someone in an accident, or simply showing up for those in need. He spent over 14 years as a cook at KCA, where he was known not just for his work ethic but for his warmth, laughter, and easygoing nature.

Leroy loved life and lived it fully. He adored his wife Ann and treasured every moment with his family. Whether playing spades or dominoes, dancing to old-school music, or throwing block parties for the neighborhood, Leroy knew how to turn ordinary moments into joyful memories.

He was the life of the party, a loyal friend, and someone you could always count on.

He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and selflessness. Leroy taught us to be kind, enjoy the moment and take care of one another.

He leaves to mourn: his wife Mari Morgan Davis, daughters Shakiyla Ray, Sharonda Ray, Torisha Bridges, Shelbie Hall, son Joshua Ray, son in laws Bernardo Bridges and Jonathan Hall and 15 grandchildren, and a host of others and friends.

“ To the family, especially his wife Ann, I was deeply saddened to hear about Leroy's passing. His memories will last a life time. Leroy was the life of the party. Everywhere he went, he never met a stranger. To his daughter Shelbie, Leroy, was always proud of you. He was happy to call you his daughter and that he loved you dearly... Leroy you will truly be missed!!!

“ The laughs we shared will forever be etched into my memory. It was God's divine timing to move me to North Carolina that way I was able to develop a relationship with you, my aunt, and cousins. I'm happy I had the chance to get to know you not only as my uncle but as a man. I'm going to miss you calling me your sister!!!! Love you man. Watch over the family and keep us protected. May your love for life and enjoying it live on! <3
