“ *From the Charlton's family-
We may not understand the depth of your pain but this we know for sure ,not very long from now you will all be reunited in heaven where pain will be replaced by great rejoicing. In the mean time take comfort and know that God is with this family and will be until eternity.*

Our prayers are with you, God bless and keep you all. make His face to shine upon you all and give you His peace.

“ We want to convey our deepest sympathy to Bishop Black and family on the transition of His wife, mother, sister and friend. She will be greatly missed. It was Evagelist Black who introduced me to the young lady that has been my wife now for 39 years. To God be the glory. We will keep the family in our prayers. Pastor Linton Morris

“ I remember the days after church, she would greet me and I could barely understand what she was saying because of her accent. I would simply smile because I couldn't make out everything she was saying. She has always been an example of how a Godly mother should be. Right now as I am typing, I remember her singing the song “We are together again”, knowing that the words had a deep meaning in her heart. I thank God for the blessing she has been in my family's life and give Apostle Black and the rest of the deepest condolences. We send you our love and will continue to keep you on our prayers. Good bless you.
