*Lissie Mae took care of me and my brother and sister many times growing up! She was so good to us! She always made me laugh. I didn't realize until i was older how much she really meant to me. She was a big part of my life. She loved us-she was family to us! I would go see her most Christmas' and take her a ham. My mother would go with me and we would sit and visit for a good while. Lissie Mae always made me laugh!
Rest in Peace with your Heavenly Father.*

Lissie Mae lived in NY with us to take care of myself and my Sister Kate. She was with us for about 14 years or so. I have thought often of her as I loved her dearly and still do.

She was the Mother figure to us as our mother was not the best.

Lissie taught us about Jesus and songs to go along with those teachings. She would go back from time to time to see her family. but would always come back. As I got older I thought about her family and felt the longing that she felt for them. I believe she had a 2 year old son, and I thought on that as well with great sadness. I have a picture of her and myself on my first day of kindergarten, I was five then and now I am 66. When she left us my sister and I had a hard time without her on many levels. I hope her family reads this and will know how much she meant to us, how we thank you all for sharing her, I know that was not easy at all. I did try to find her before computers and spoke with someone in her local post office. A nice lady told me that she was still alive and she was her's and John's mail lady. She also told me she was very old and did not come outside. I know we will get to see her in Heaven and that will be a meeting and hugs I surly look forward to. I plan on visiting her grave this year with my sister hopefully in the Fall, God willing. I have never met a greater lady then she.

PS. Once a week usually on Fridays, I would walk in from school and there on the kitchen counter set a Lemon Meringue pie. She made it for me as she knew it was my favorite. I would look at her and she would give me that sweet Lissie Mae smile. ❤️

All my love to you Lissie and your family, Jennifer (Philippe) Burke.
