

Mrs. Lois Yvonne Somerville

November 6, 1948 - April 7, 2023

Lois Yvonne Paschall Somerville went to be with her Lord and Savior on Good Friday, April 7, 2023, surrounded by family as she transitioned from her earthly life. She was born in Durham, North Carolina, to the late Calvin Clay Paschall and Lucy Clayton Reid Paschall on November 6, 1948. Lois was raised in Clarksville, VA, but made her home in Fayetteville, NC, with her husband, Ezra "Mike" Mays Somerville, III, and her three children.

Lois was educated in Mecklenburg County Virginia public schools. She attended West End High School and upon graduating she was accepted and attended Shaw University. Lois was a true beauty queen in both high school and college. In her freshman year of high school, she was crowned West End Queen. In college, she was crowned Miss Freshman. She earned a Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education. Later in life, Lois attained her Master of Arts in Education with a concentration in Admiration from University of Phoenix. She has now earned the highest degree, eternal Life, with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

During her early childhood, she found the "...peace that passes all understanding..." through the Catholic faith. After moving to Fayetteville, she became an active parishioner at St. Ann Catholic Church by being a member of the Altar Rosary Society, A.A.M.E.N., providing religious education to children, and participating as a Eucharistic Minister.

Lois developed a passion for teaching, guiding, and supporting children- especially toddlers- from her parents, who were both educators. She worked on Fort Bragg in various child development centers, in public school systems teaching K-12 on Virginia, Georgia, Maryland, and North Carolina.

Lois' love and legacy lives on through her husband, Mike Somerville, her children Monique L. Mock, Michael P. Somerville and Monet N. Somerville and her stepson Stacy D. Somerville, as well as her grandchildren Nia L. Terry, Jonathan M. Terry, & Jasmine E. Y. Terry, and four great-grandbabies, Giovanni McCall, Madison Boyd, Jay'von "Juju" Boyd Jr., and Ashton Boyd and a host of in-laws, cousins, relatives and friends.
