“ To the family of Luther Wilder:

It is with a heavy heart that I extend my deepest sympathy to Cousin Luther's family. I can remember when Cousin Luther let me and my sister, Juanita, drive his Austin Healey in a Spencer High School parade many, many years ago. We were so proud. The last time I saw Luther was at my brother Lonnie's wedding in Chattanooga, Tn., almost 30 years ago. We talked and laughed and shared memories of his time at Fort Benning, in Columbus, Ga. It was so good to see him after such a long absence. The Dawkins family fondly remembers Cousin Luther. "When God saw the road was getting rough and the hill was hard to climb, he gently closed Cousin Luther's eyes and said peace be mine".

*With Deepest Sympathy,
Ben Dawkins (Cheshire, CT.)
and the Entire Dawkins Family*

“ Cousin Junior was and is an object of my admiration. He and my mother were first cousins. When we lived in GA, Cousin Junior would visit us occasionally in what seemed like kingly fanfare. Oh, it was nothing he created, but it was wrought by my young imaginative mind. He would drive up in his Austin Healey convertible looking dapper, penny loafers or Army digs, always with a little something for the "kids." Then we moved to Michigan and the next time I saw cousin Junior was when he showed up unannounced for my college commencement. Cousin Junior was always full of welcomed surprises and will certainly be missed. Cousin Junior will now dwell in Heaven among God's prized messengers. He's well equipped for the task, since God granted those talents to him. Rest in peace, cousin. I'm striving to join you there someday.
