“ I met Lynne when I was about 16. We worked together at Hardeez. She stood in the doorway at the courthouse while I got married to my husband and ran in and hugged me after it was over. I wasn't an active part of her life but we saw one another around town from time to time and would always catch up. I never forgot her name. She was such a sweet person. She hardly knew me but treated me like she had known me her whole life. I was so hurt when I found out she had died. May God grant you all comfort and peace....my deepest condolences...N. Blaine

“ Lynne was not just a sister-in-law to me she was a true sister. She often told me I was a sister that she never had. She loved you unconditionally. Even though my heart is heavy, I will hold on to the good memories of you close to my heart. I will truly miss you. I love you Lynne!!!

Most people I knew call her Momma Lynne, because she mothered everybody she came in contact with. I will miss you. When we left each other we had our own funny way of saying, Girl Bye. Good Women, I will remember the good Memories
