

Ms Madgalene Hinton

November 17, 1941 - October 20, 2019

Madgalene Monroe Hinton was born on November 17, 1941 to the late Charles Gilbert Monroe and Pheobe McLean Monroe in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Madgalene accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church. She received her formal education in the North Carolina Public School System, where she attended and graduated from EE Smith High School. After graduating, she started her first and only job at the Cumberland County Public Library System, where she faithfully served until her retirement in 2007, after more than 40 years of service. In 1979, Madgalene married the love of her life and best friend Robert, which preceded her in death.

Madgalene a strong believer in Christ, and a love of fellowship attended and eventually joined Reilly Road Presbyterian Church, in Fayetteville, NC until her illness prevented her from actively attending.

Madgalene an avid reader and lover of books enjoyed crossword puzzles, watching old time gospel singing, and spending time with her only grandchild.

Even in sickness, Madgalene never complained and lived to bring joy and laughter to all that she encountered. Those in her existence understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives.

Madgalene departed this life on Sunday, October 20, 2019.

She leaves to cherish her memory: One brother Herman Monroe (Miranda); one son; Herman Christopher Monroe, one daughter Rosalyn Elaine Hinton (of the home), two stepchildren Linda Hinton Butler (James) Charlotte, NC and Robert Tony Hinton (Maryland) One grandchild Makalya Hinton Sims-Jones.

five step-grandchildren, and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
