

Ms. Maggie Godwin Farmer

April 23, 1943 - April 21, 2021

Maggie Godwin Farmer born on April 23, 1943 to the late Foster and Katie Godwin.

At an early age, she joined Bridges Grove A.M.E. Zion Church. Later in life, she became a member of New Salem International Ministries. She graduated from Upchurch High School in 1961.

She was joined in holy matrimony to the late Peter Garland Farmer. This union was blessed with two children. They relocated to Brooklyn, New York. She worked as a teacher for New York Public School System. She later returned to North Carolina. She was employed at House of Raeford until she retired in 1995.

She leaves to cherish her many precious memories: a son, Garland Farmer, Jr. of Fayetteville, North Carolina; a daughter, Vanessa Carter of Fayetteville, North Carolina; a sister, Ernestine Godwin of Shannon, North Carolina; a beloved grandson, Daquan Farmer of Shreveport, Louisiana; three brothers-in-law, Thomas Farmer (Ellen), Roscoe Farmer of Fayetteville, North Carolina and Charlie Dixon of Lumber Bridge, North Carolina; three sisters-in-law, Deloris Godwin, Mamie Godwin of Raeford, North Carolina and Mary Farmer Montgomery of Durham, North Carolina; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.
