

Marcellus M. Blackmon

April 10, 1978 - October 22, 2019

Marcellus McNeill Blackmon (Bukee) was born April 10, 1978 to James T. Blackmon and Susan McNeill Blackmon in Lumberton, North Carolina. On October 22, 2019, he passed away peacefully with his mother by his side. He was preceded in death by his brother Thomas Edward Blackmon, his paternal grandparents Thomas (Bud) and Beatrice Quick Blackmon and his maternal grandparents, Edward McNeill and Edith Burden McNeill McDonald. Marc graduated from Lumberton Senior High in 1997 and attended Shaw University in Raleigh, NC. He attended Floyd's Temple No. 1 United Holy Church where he participated in the Sunshine Band and YPHA.

Marc loved music of all types from classical, rock, soul, to rap. He played the cello and bass as a member of the orchestra of Carroll Middle School, Lumberton Jr. High and Lumberton Sr. High. He was a member of the Lumberton Sr. High and Shaw University Marching Bands where he played the tuba. He also played the guitar.

After working at various businesses in Lumberton, Marc moved to Los Angeles in 2007 where he worked for a time in the music industry and later at Universal Studios. Marc also loved cars, especially drag racing, designing cars on paper, and especially good food.

Marc is survived by his mother, Susan McNeill Blackmon, father, James T.

Blackmon, nieces Trinitee Anique Blackmon (Sharon Summerlin) and Jazzalynn Ebonee Blackmon (Stephanie Lovelace); brother Jeffrey Blackmon; “brother”

Rodney Bell; godfather Lawrence Blackmon (Linda); aunts Blanchie McNeill, Ernestine Kriel, Deborah Allen (Arthur), Marilyn Blackmon-Salabarria (Alberto), Carolyn Cain (Ronald), and Lynn Thompson (Thomas); uncles James

McNeill, Alton Edward Blackmon, Eric Blackmon (Francine), and Christopher Blackmon; special ‘aunts’ Janice Talley, Lela Robinson Lewis, Linda Robinson and Carol Blackmon who were a constant presence during his illness; and cousins who were raised with him, Camille Blackmon, Raymond Howell, Temesha McMillan, and April McMillan. He will also be deeply missed by numerous cousins, friends, co-workers, and all others whose hearts he touched over the course of his life.
