“ I have known Marcia for 48 years, she was a hard worker, sometimes working long hours and working seven days a week. Now she does not have to worry about these things anymore, she is now in the heavenly home that was prepared for her where all of her days are good days, know more getting up early in the morning and sometimes staying late at work, dealing with various types of weather. Rest in peace my friend
God knows best

“ "In all things we give thanks"

The Purolator Mann Hummel family is very thankful to God for allowing Marcia to have been our friend and co-worker for 48 years. Her loving heart, kind and humble spirit will be deeply missed. We are very grateful for being blessed to have known her. Marcia, we miss you and we love you but we know Heaven just gained another Angel.

“ I was sad when I heard that my friend, who taught me how to drive, transitioned from the world. However my spirit was comforted by Jesus saying “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die.” Take your rest Marcia knowing that the Jesus promised that you shall yet live.

“ Marcia A. Jones words cannot express when I learned of your transition. I remember as a child you came by and pick me up, and we would go for long rides. I use to say to you how fast you were driving. As first cousin's we had a unique relationship. I remember speaking to you last year and you stated to me that you were considering retiring. You will certainly be missed by family, friends, and your co-workers. You were a beautiful ROSE in God's garden and he decided to select you. Love you throughout eternity! RIH

What a shock to hear of Marcia Jones has gone to rest in peace. What a dear friend. Covid made us limit our bowling tournaments, but we will meet again my friend. I loved her so so much and will our talks and bowling trips. Rest in peace Marcia. I will always cherish the great times we shared. Go prepare a place for the rest of family and friends to join you as God sees fit. I will always love and miss you my friend.
