

Mrs. Margaret Virginia Brown

March 13, 1934 - February 4, 2024

Margaret V. Brown was born on March 13, 1934 in Raeford, NC to Alonzo Dockery and Lillie Frierson Dockery. She departed this life on Sunday February 4, 2024 At Cape Fear Valley Hospital. She attended school in Hoke County, graduating from what was Upchurch High School. Upon relocating to New York, she worked in various jobs. She found that she really loved working with special needs children. She then enrolled and completed her degree work at Syracuse University, New York. She retired in 1998 from the school system in Syracuse New York after forty years of service. In 1998, she returned to North Carolina and moved to Fayetteville NC. She found and joined Evans Metropolitan AME Zion Church. She loved her church! She was either talking about or working in and around the church. She was involved several organizations within the church, until her health declined. Her only child, Benda Star Brown, preceded her in death, as well her mother and father, Alonzo and Lillie, and her only sibling, Willie Spencer. She is survived by her grandchildren, Latonia Brown, Raeford NC and Franklin Brown of the home. Though she only had one sibling, the Frierson first cousins were the best friends, especially Ruth (Jimmy) Misenheimer of Winston Salem NC. She is also survived by 5 great grandchildren, and 5 great great grandchildren, cousins, church family and friends.
