

Mrs. Margo Chevette Hughes

July 30, 1980 - December 3, 2019

Margo Chevette Floyd-Hughes passed away peacefully with her family by her side on December 3, 2019.

Margo was born on July 30, 1980, in Cape Fear Valley Hospital in Fayetteville, North Carolina. She was a great, loving, and caring wife, mother, sister, daughter, and friend. Margo was an active member at Home of the Prodigal, where she loved her church family.

Margo was preceded in death by her grandmother, Carrie Mae McLean; her mother, Tina F. Ray; and her aunt, Pearlie Mack.

Margo is survived by: her husband, Thomas Hughes; three brave sons, Darius Benjamin (My Heart), Emmanuwell Benjamin (My Red Baby), and Kaleb Hughes (My Baby); her father, Bennie Ray I; brother, Bennie Ray II; three gorgeous sisters, Bianca Rutherford (Walter), Crystal Stewart (Marcus), and Azaria Ray (Baby Sister); precious nephew, Adden Duren; special brother-in-law, Patrick Hughes; her mother-in-law, who was like a mother, Mamie Hughes; two uncles, Elgett Floyd (Marjorie) of Southern Pines, NC, and Leon V. Ellison of Seoul, South Korea; and a host of relatives, godchildren, godsisters and brothers, and grand-godchildren.

Margo was a staple of whatever community she lived in. She took in young girls and children who were alone. She would defend, nurture, and fight for them. She could curse you up one wall and down the other, then pray for you.

She loved to play pranks on her family. She was full of love and laughter.

Even with all the trials she faced, she still had joy. As we lay her to rest, she would tell us, "Do not be sad. I'm resting, waiting to meet my mother and Grandmother again."

Words can't express the pain I feel as I know you have moved on. You take with you a part of my heart and I am so so glad that we shared a great friendship for the few years we did. You shared in my joys and pains. That can never be replaced. Your calming words when I was afraid to have my daughter, your goddaughter. I will always love and cherish your sweet spirit. I love you my sister and true best friend.
