

Mrs Margy Dale Galloway

March 20, 1937 - February 15, 2019

Margy Dale Galloway Byrd was born on March 20, 1937 in York County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Era Mae Roberts and Isaiah Byrd. She was raised by her late grandmother, Vinnie Jane Lawrence and late Aunt, Celia Ray Lawrence.

Margy attended public schools in Gastonia, North Carolina, graduating from Lincoln Academy High School in 1956.

On May 31, 1956, Margy married the love of her life, Alonzo Alexander Galloway in Dillon, South Carolina. She traveled across the country as he pursued his military career. Their 58 year union produced five daughters—Shari (Cornell Oliver), Soluria (Mark Pearson), Shinese, Soltonnia (Herman Geddie), and Sylvia.

Margy was a gifted seamstress who sewed professionally, and as a hobby. She was so skilled that she was hired by the Army to make blankets and sheets for soldiers, to alter uniforms and sew on insignia patches. She often sewed for church functions, volunteering to make choir robes, curtains, and pillows for the pulpit. She passed her love of sewing to others by teaching them the craft as well.

The theme of her life was service. During the years, she worked in professional day care and food service. She volunteered as a voter registration clerk in Cumberland County. She loved serving others and was a tireless champion for the underdog.

A devout Christian, Margy gave her life to the Lord and the ministry working as an evangelist, Prophet and most recently Eldress at her beloved church, Whomsoever Will Let Them Come.

Margy was the last heir in her family line preceded in death by her parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles. She is also predeceased by her beloved husband Alonzo, and her brother Zire Jay. She is survived by her daughters, grandchildren, and great grandchildren, and a host of other loving family members.

In her lifetime, Margy touched many people. Her prayers blanketed and healed many. She was beloved and will be missed.

“ Dear Cousins and your families, please know that my thoughts and prayers have been with you during this time of transition of your Mother. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Faithful and honest in all her ways,
Devoted and true to the end of her days,
A loving spirit, gentle and kind,
What a beautiful memory she leaves behind.

Love you always,

Linda Galloway Goins
