

Mrs. Marie (Rinhart) Gardner

December 19, 1928 - August 13, 2025

Mrs. Marie Rinehart born December 19, 1928 in Albion, NJ to the late Michael & Hester Rinehart (nee Washington). Wife to the late William Gardner of Pennsauken, NJ. Sister to the late Thelma Rinehart, Leo Rinehart, & Evelyn Jackson (nee Rinehart). She leaves one sister to mourn her passing, Edna Campbell (nee Rinehart). Marie was a loving mother to seven children Jimmy, James Brian Ramsey (both deceased) and will be sadly missed by her remaining 5 children: Diane Murphy, Sylvia King, Cynthia Stigar, David Rucker, and Donna Jefferson, her daughters-in-law, Earl King and Ron Jefferson, Sr. Marie was a loving and attentive grandmother to 21 grandchildren and 30 great grandchildren and a host of great, great grandchildren, a loving and caring aunt to her nieces: Sandra, Cecelia, Michelle (deceased), sadly missed by Carol (Puddy), Toni, Linda, Hester, and Athena. Her nephews: George, Frankie, Charles, Frances (deceased), sadly missed by Ronald, and Enoch affectionately known to them all as Aunt ReRe. Marie was recognized for being a dedicated and hard worker as a seamstress for the Federal Defense Supply (Quartermaster) in Philadelphia, PA for 30 years. She loved to sew for her family and friends and was adept at making hats for women. She served as Pastor's Aide for many years, the Deaconess Board, and the Maude S. Walker Missionary Board at First Baptist Church of Delair, NJ, where she also held her membership before health concerns caused her to relocate to North Carolina to live with family. Marie continued her close walk with the Lord by fellowshipping for many years at Faith

Tabernacle Christian Center in St. Pauls, NC where Pastors Earl and Denise Goings welcomed and embraced her with love along with their congregation for many years until health concerns forced her to no longer continue to attend.
