

Mr. Mario Baldwin

May 2, 1989 - February 19, 2021

Mario Baldwin was born to Erica Baldwin and Michael Marsh.

He attended Cumberland County Schools and graduated from Jack Britt High School. He enjoyed his daughter, family, friends and sports. He played ball since he was six years old and became very good at them all to include AAU Basketball.

Mario was the humblest kid I know. His memory will live on forever. He went off to college for a little while in California. Mario came back to North Carolina while he was getting things together. He had a downhill spiral, then January 10, 2020 Mario made a complete 360 in his life, he changed everything about himself. He got a job, bought himself a truck and stayed focused. So today, I can say I'm proud of you son, what a way to make us proud until I see you again.

He leaves to cherish his memory: daughter and Love of his life, Michaela Baldwin; his mother, Erica Baldwin (Calvin); father, Michael Marsh; siblings, Chaparis Marsh, Michael Marsh Jr., Tawanika McCoy (Rodner), Marquis McMillan (Dominique), Korina Thomas (Ashley), Margo Capers, Mytrez Marsh and Angelic McArther Knotts; grandmothers, Elizabeth Baldwin (late Lacy Baldwin) Bobby Price (Grandma's Black Sugar & you better not mess with him) and Linda Marsh; grandfather, Alexander Evans (Alice); great aunts, Rosetta and Doris; aunts, Audrey, Tina, April, Tamika and Malinda; uncles, Anthony, Jed, James, Tony and Lacy; cousins, nieces and nephews who loved him; special to the family, Korell Ellis, Demarcus, Antwan, Kendrick and Ashley.
