

Mr. Mark Lawrence Campbell

September 26, 1980 - May 12, 2024

God in His infinite wisdom called from labor to reward, our beloved Mark Lawrence Campbell on Sunday, May 12, 2024. Mark was born September 26, 1980, in Fayetteville, North Carolina to the former Deborah Meighan and Mark Davis.

Mark and his mother Deborah would later join in Holy Matrimony, Bruce Campbell, thus giving them the Campbell name.

Mark received his education in the Cumberland County School system, graduating from Douglas Byrd High School. He also took some college courses.

Mark was a go-getter! He worked several jobs to include just a few; Taco Bell during high school, Apria Healthcare, Investment Company in Colorado and Chroma Color in Salisbury, NC. Mark's personality was infectious. He'd light up any room he walked into. He was a loving father, brother, grandson, nephew, uncle and friend.

Out of all of Mark's accomplishments, the most important one, was when he gave his life to Jesus Christ. Mark, as we all do, had some troubling times in life, but he had begun to turn his life around. We, the family are glad we witnessed his change.

Mark was preceded in death by his aunt, Saudia Meighan; paternal grandfather, Preston Davis; parental grandmother, Elizabeth Campbell and cousin, Cookie McKoy.

He leaves a legacy of love to, his twin daughters: Nia and Mia Campbell of Washington State, WA; one son: Sean Marley-Campbell of Alaska; his parents: Bruce and Deborah Campbell of Fayetteville, NC; birth father: Mark Davis of Fayetteville, NC; maternal siblings: Isolita Simmons (Frank) and Phillip Campbell (Sarah); parental siblings: Preston Dennard Davis, Dakhari Davis, Markasia Davis, Jackson Davis, Charles "Chucky" Kokason, Mark Kokason and Kayla Connor; maternal grand-parents: Lawrence Meighan and Clarence and Marilyn Varner; paternal grandmother: Julia Davis; and a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.
