“ This lady was the most loving person in cedar creek. This is my mom 1st cousin but growing up I would hear her called her aunt Mary. I said mama I thought you said she was our cousin she said Jessica she is more than a cousin. so every since then I called her auntie Mary. Then when I got older I stayed with Daughter Kim every weekend and she treated me as if i was her daughter she loved me and gave me words of encouragement. taught me so much that I have applied in my life over the years. She will be missed and I love my family so much Rest on Auntie Mary Violet #cedarcreekhaslostagreatpersononceagain
