“ It's with a heavy heart that I have to eventually accept the loss of my Aunt Mary Thornton, and I don't want to, but I have to. I'll always remember my Auntie for the funny, loving beautiful person that she was. She was a great mother, sister, cousin, Aunt, and friend to all who loved her. She fought the good fight before God called her home. No more pain, no more tears, no more suffering for her. You're in a better place now Auntie. I love you...❤️
