“ I will miss talking with my cousin, Melva. I will always reflect on all the touching memories that will now mean more than ever to me. "His promise is the light by which we see our loved ones in that sweet by and by. Precious memories how they linger.

“ Even though my faith is strong my heart is heavy. Aunt Melba you are the calm in the storm and I will never forget how you opened your heart and home to my mom (Ivory Jean) and I. My mom loved you and shared your love with me. May God be with all your love ones and I share in their grief but rejoice in the victory of Christ who lives, knows best and heals all.

“ My favorite memory I will always have of "Ma" "Ma" is when we sat down in her kitchen at the little table and she told me "from now on I have another daughter". I loved her for that.And that's how I always felt when I was around her, like she was my " ma ma ".
