“ Words cannot express the level of hurt I feel right now. In the short time of knowing Michael, I found him to be a remarkable young man. Every day before leaving school he would stop by my classroom just to say good bye mama, give me a hug and hear words of encouragement. I will never forget the many talks we had and the humility he displayed. Michael will truly be missed. I am grateful that I had an opportunity to know him. My prayers and thoughts will continue to go out to his friends, former teachers of NCIMS and family.

“Condolences to the family of this young man. So sad when young ones die, but be happy that they shared a life with you. May happy memories drown out the sadness of loss. He is done with the world's troubles. He doesn't have to worry about the challenges that we all face in this system anymore. Look forward to seeing him again, happy, reaching out for you and in excellent health that will be given him in the resurrection. Keep that hope before you as held out by Jesus at John 11:25 where he said in part, "I am the resurrection and the life.."RIP, young man.
