

Mr. Michael Gerald Mickles

March 1, 1968 - January 30, 2020

Michael “Mike” Gerald Mickles was born to his parents of Pauline McDowell and Mack Jones on March 1, 1968 in Lumberton, North Carolina, and he closed his eyes and went on to meet his Lord and Savior, January 30, 2020 at Southeastern Regional Medical Center. He was the tenth child of eleven children. A self-proclaimed “Eddie Kane and Denzel Washington”. He was a person never loss for words. To his neighbors, he was fondly known as the Mayor of Spearman Street. He loved his family, neighbors and friends. Mike enjoyed reading the Bible, listening to music “especially County Music”, and he loved the Carolina Panthers.

As a youth, Michael joined Mt. Sinai United Holy Church and served in various capacities. He graduated from the public schools of Robeson County and was employed at Watts Water Technologies of St. Pauls, North Carolina. He was loved by so many; he would help anyone who was in need, especially his Spearman Street families.

Michael was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters; Gloria Henderson, LaMarva Mickles, nephew, Tyran Pitchford and godfather, Deacon Jessie B. Crump. Michael leaves to cherish his sweet memories, three daughters; Jasmine Mickles, Christina Campbell and Michaela Mickles, stepdaughter; Larissa Addison, four grandchildren; Jeremiah Campbell, Christian Campbell, Bryson Mitchell and Josiah King, Three brothers; Hubert McDowell (Belva), Tyrone Mickles (Gloria) and Timothy McDowell- brother and best friend, five sisters; Carolyn Taylor, Gwen Thompson, Jacquelyn Sutton (Ron) Jennifer Mickles, and Cathy Julious (Phillip), godmother, Sarah Crump. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, coworkers, beloved Spearman Street families and so many friend.
