“ Ms. Sims was my buddy 😞 my heart was deeply saddened when I heard of her departure from this world.. I had the pleasure of being her housekeeper at Carolina Rehab, and her Uncle Charles. May God be with your beautiful family Ms. Sims. That's all she talked about was going home. I'll miss you smiling at me even when you didn't feel like it. Love you

“ Where do I begin.... Cousin Michelle you were one of the best cousins I could have ever askEd for. I will cherish all of the memories we shared over the years. We had the best conversations and laughs together and that is something I will never forget. You loved everyone genuinely and that is what I will remember most. Candy you have my heart felt condolences cousin. You remain strong and I know it's hard because your best friend is resting now but just know she loved you and would do anything for her Candy. I love you cousin and may God wrap you in his arms and give you strength, comfort, and shower you with his love during this difficult time of bereavement. I love you both Meik Meik...

The thing I will miss the most, will be your smiles and hugs. Michelle you were a very sweet person. Everytime I saw you, you had a smile on your face, we would chat it up, and laugh together. I'm going to miss your smiles so much. As I sit here tearing up knowing that you are no longer here, I know that you are at rest now, until that day we will all see you again. To the children, your Mom was one of the sweetest person I knew. She and I first met when we were teenagers. Her dad, my uncle introduced us to one another, and we played and laughed with each other that whole evening. I Love you my dear cousin, may you be at peace.

“Michelle and I met 30 years ago when our husbands were stationed at Ft. Bragg, NC. We remained friends all of these years. Michelle had the sweetest spirit, and I loved to hear her laugh when something tickled her. Michelle my friend, I am going to miss you so very much. But, rest in heaven with sweet peace.
