“ I met momma Mildred about 20 years ago we were stationed in fort Bragg I was a young mother of 7 Mrs Mildred was 30 years older than me we work together we came very good friend she will help me with my kids her and Don were a blessing for us even though my stay in Fayetteville with short I never lost contact with her over the years she always had the same phone number that I can call anytime throughout the years at one point she still lived at the same address. I had to privilege of visiting her prior to covid when she told me that she lost her husband she was able to see my kids all grown up I was happy to see her. Rest in peace momma Mildred I came to Fayetteville looking for u again searched your address to surprise u and found your obituary. U are truly missed ! Love You my friend / 2nd mom!!
