

Milton McNeill

December 9, 1933 - November 30, 2019

MR. MILTON WILLIAM MCNEILL, son of the late Elizabeth and Mack McNeill was born on December 9, 1933 in Fayetteville, North Carolina. He departed this life at home, after succumbing to cancer on November 27, 2019, with his loving wife Alice at his bedside.

McNeill, or Mr. McNeill as he was so affectionately known, attended public schools in Spring Lake, North Carolina. He admirably served his country as a member of the United States Air Force, completing his tour of duty with an Honorable Discharge. McNeill was a skilled technician and machine operator at General Motors for over 28 years. He was a hard-working businessman who owned his own tire shop for over 15 years. Mr. McNeill was a kind and gentle man who was an avid sports fan who loved wrestling, football and playing cards.

He was preceded in death by his son, James McNeill, Newark, New Jersey; his granddaughter Karumah Mayfield, Spring Lake, North Carolina; his brother Robert McNeill (Lucy), Spring Lake, North Carolina, and sister Joyce McNeill, Spring Lakes, North Carolina.

Mr. McNeill married his bride, Alice Holmes Mayfield on October 12, 1982, and they had a blended family with four children.

In addition to his devoted wife, he leaves to cherish his memory, his daughters, Debra Smalls, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania and Patricia Mayfield, Spring Lake, North Carolina; his son Milton Mayfield McNeill, Spring Lake, North Carolina, and his sister Maxine Lewis, Linden, New Jersey. He also leaves his grandchildren who he adored: Ibn Kelly, Rahanna White-Bey, Niaheem Mayfield, Cyroya Bellamy, Ashanti Bellamy, Tameka Bellamy, Marquita Cooper, Hakem McNeill and Jamal McNeill, as well as a host of great grands, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. He will be missed by all.
