

Mrs. Monica Felicia Williams

January 31, 1954 - February 9, 2024

Monica was born January 31, 1954 to the late Poethaniel and Natalie Evans in Birmingham, Alabama. She was a graduate of E.E. Smith High School in Fayetteville, NC.

Monica was a Neonatal Intensive Care Unit Secretary at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center until retirement. She enjoyed working with the babies, families and fellow employees, which became family. Monica was a loving wife to the late Norman Williams. They were married in 1983. To this union, two children were born, Shawn Evans (Renee') and Monique Williams (Jason). During their union, the family was stationed in Bamberg, Germany, where life long friends were made.

Monica joined Ambassadors For Jesus Christ where she served in several capacities until she was physically not able.

Monica was preceded in death by one sister, Tzena McKinnon; a nephew, Xurry Evans; and a niece, MyAngel Melvin.

In addition to her children, she leaves to mourn: four grandchildren, Eric Jr., Jayden, Aniyah of the home and Yurryanna of Fayetteville, NC. She also leaves one sister, Chiquita Melvin (Alonzo) of Fayetteville, NC; one brother, Mike Evans of Washington, DC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Monica enjoyed her visits with Mother Sara Floyd and transportation to and from church by Deacon Clifford. She cherished every prayer, visit, phone call, and thoughtful gift.
