Donna accepted Christ as her Savior at the age of five, at St. John Baptist Church in Alton, Illinois. Donna was a very friendly outgoing woman, everywhere she went she made friends she never knew a stranger. For all those who knew her, knew she had a strong personality and never held back her true feelings on the way she felt, she always meant well and had an unconditional love for everyone who walked in her path. Donna was very free hearted and would give you her last, her only mission in life was to be kind, helpful, and constantly on the move. She developed a love for bowling and she enjoyed traveling from city to city with her bowling league.
