

Retired MSG William Monroe Jr.

February 28, 1948 - December 5, 2023

REFLECTIONS ON THE LIFE OF RETIRED MSG William Houston Monroe, Jr. Today, we honor the life of Master Sergeant William Houston (Bro) Monroe Jr. A man who is known for his big heart and an even bigger smile. He meant a lot of things to a lot of people as he cultivated relationships among various groups and individuals that he loved dearly. Most importantly he was a Godfearing family man. William's heart knew no bounds as he and his wife Barbara who preceded him in death, navigated life's joys and challenges proving that family extends beyond bloodlines. Together they created a tapestry of love within our blended family that consists of: Darrell (Katie) Monroe of Charleston, SC, Regina (Rodger) Solomon of Charlotte, NC, Pamela Monroe of Rockingham, NC, Wendy (Chuck) Brown of Fort Mill, SC, Abasi Kevin (Toni) Baruti of Denver, CO, Timmy (Shay) Bethea of Charlotte, NC, Makala Monroe of Rockingham, NC and Brian (Rhasied) Bethea of Ewa Beach, HI, fifteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren with whom they showered with an abundance of love, leaving an enduring legacy of unity and compassion. He leaves behind siblings, Mазzie Hampton, Rosemary Rainer, Lillie (Jimmy) Bostick, John (Teretha) Monroe, Craig Leak and James Monroe. In the shared journey of our blended family, William leaves behind a profound imprint of love, family and faith that we will take with us through the rest of our lives.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. Bro as I always called him was my cousin that shared birthday parties when we were young. Birthday is two days apart. The last time I saw him was when he was in rehap in Scottish Pines Rehap Center in Laurinburg. That was a great visit, and I can still see the smile on his face. Rest in peace dear cousin. “ William was such a great person and a wonderful brother-in-law. He was always positive and upbeat. Even during the time of his health struggles, he would laugh and talk positively during our phone conversations. He truly trusted in God. Submitted with sincere prayers for the family.
