“ Thank you all for the love, care, and support. My daughter was a special part of my life just like my other children, never in a million years or a million lifetimes would I have thought that one of my children would leave before me. As a young father this has really put a damper on my life but also made me look at life alot differently. My angel now resides in heaven forever free keeping me from breaking down and losing all faith and hope on life. I hope all those who have children learn from this situation and learn love and cherish your children alot more and really understand what they meant to you. Life is not forever one moment everything can be okay and the next everything can be stripped from you, but its a test of faith good faith at that. We walk again with our daughter and be a family again one day and thats what keeps me pushing everyday. THANK YOU ALL SO MUCH I MEAN IT.

LOVE THE DRAUGELAT FAMILY.

“ So very sorry for the loss of your precious Baby Girl. The Bible calls death an enemy that our Heavenly father will soon do away with (1Cor. 15:26) May that hope strengthen and comfort you, for it is a sure promise made in His word the Bible (Rev. 21:4.5) Please have faith in it.

“ My sincere condolences to Draugelat family. the death of a infant daughter is one of the worst losses we can ever face and at this time there probably is not much that can comfort you at this. However just remember that Death was NOT part of our Creator’s original purpose. And that is why He promises us that in the future he “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”(Rev 21:4) And for the mean time he does provide comfort for you and the family, because we know “ He heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds.”(Psalms 147:3) So trust in him so that he can provide you the comfort that you need. Again, my sincere condolences.
