“ Cousin Noah I will never forget the times I stayed over your house as a young girl. Joyce was like my big sister. So we would have sleepovers as if we were the same age. The twins were not even born. You made sure we had a full breakfast and after that I would go with you to feed the dogs. Thank you for looking out for my mom when my daddy passed. You would bring fresh vegetables from your garden so my mom would have healthy meals to cook. Cousin Noah you will forever be in my heart. Love Tracey Robinson Hester!
