“ Kato was my salesperson at Bleekers in Red Springs. It did not matter if he was off on a day that you wanted to buy a car. His passion for his customers was at the top. Kato was a well respectful young man and always had that big smile. To hear about his gaining his heavenly wings just hurts. But today I like to say to the family Kato is in Gods hands and he is okay. Kato is smiling down from heaven. Kato, God needed a salesman in heaven so he ask you and you accept the reward from earth to do your job in heaven. take your rest my dear friend and may all your good memories selling me my car will forever be with me. To the family I asked God to give you the strength at time time . Remember one thing Kato love you but God needed a rose in his garden and Kato was ready.
