“ I will always miss Norma. She was an inspiration, fun, loving, kind and intelligent. I loved working with her on civil matters. She was the first elected African American Democrat Chairman of the Party in Hoke County. She was able to do much with little; travel to the National Convention and be able to speak. Yes, Norma was a mover-and-a-shaker for the good of mankind. Rest well my dear sister. Love you forever. Ellen

Ms. Norma was a visionary person. She was so smart. She loved to be a part of the overall process in making sure everyone came to the table. I so enjoyed our conversations over the years. She will be missed tremendously. I extend my deepest condolences to Mark and Vanessa as well as the entire family.
