“ Mother Odessa A. McMillian was a Mother to the entire Hariston Family. She treated the four of us just like she had given birth to us. She has known us since we were very young girls; and we are so grateful for the memories that we shared with her in our last visit to North Carolina. Besides her smile, kindness and generosity we will also miss all of those delicious meals that she cooked. We were looking forward to Thanksgiving but God had a different plan for you. She was such a precious gem that will truly be missed. Rest on Mother Odessa and you will always hold a special place in our hearts.
