

Olga Sinclair

July 10, 1936 - July 28, 2021

Olga Kaesben Sinclair was born to Johanna Kaesben. She was raised in Welheim, Germany where she was raised with her sister Gerta Charles. She lived an active childhood and made many friends along the way.

Olga later married Lester which eventually brought her to Fayetteville NC where she established her own roots.

Olga was a wonderful mother raising 3 children Diana, Lester David Jr. and Patricia. She is also survived by her grandchildren Coyia, Iesha, Al, Jessica and Sasha. Her great grandchildren Cartier, Camarie, A'Laysha, King Romelus, her son in law Michael, Craig, and daughter in law Pamela.

Olga was a wonderful storyteller. She kept us full of laughter and she always made sure everyone was taken care of before she thought of herself. She always made it happen.

Olga is and will always be remembered as someone who touched many and gave her time and love to the children she raised. Also, to all of her friends and family that she loved dearly. Olga also loved animals, flowers, and a lover of birds and nature. God has accepted Olga into his kingdom because of the life she lived and her acknowledgement of Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She made peace with God and he has given her rest.

“ I remember Olga and her love of animals. She spoiled all of her animals and loved them deeply. Olga was funny and never met a stranger. She could hold a conversation with anyone. RIP Olga
