

Mrs. Pamela Jean Thomas

January 22, 1954 - January 9, 2024

"Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. " Psalm 30:5
On January 9, 2024, God sent His heavenly angel down to summon our beloved wife, mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, niece, Pamela Jean Thomas from this earthly scene to a land flowing with milk and honey, Pamela J. Thomas was born on January 22, 1954 in Washington DC at the DC General Hospital to the late Clarence and Peggy Russell. Pamela J. Thomas was a resident of Fayetteville, NC where she married her husband, Jack Thomas. Pamela worked in Environmental Services for many years. She loved spending time with her husband and family. She enjoyed listening to music and dancing. Cooking and cleaning were things she enjoyed as well. Pamela was full of life and had a heart of gold. She was so spunky and didn't take any mess. But that's what we loved about her. But the most important thing was she loved her "FAMILY". Pamela was preceded in death by: two brothers, Jerry Russell and Donald Russell; two sisters, Natalie Lockett and Tuesday Russell. Pamela leaves to cherish her memories: her husband, Jack Thomas; children, Angel Washington Collier (Bryant) and Ronald Price, Jr.; two sisters, Gale Jacobs and Joanne Russell; three brothers, Marvin Russell, Ronald Russell and Kevin McFadden, two grandchildren, Nova Rae Collier and Salina Williams Price; and a host of in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
