“ Pamila and I would share our love of God and family for hours. We talked of her care for her family even though, some of that time, she needed them to be caring for her. We spoke of our ancestors and their accomplishments and how they poured into our lives to formulate our dreams and aspirations. Yes, we addressed her condition. The last conversation we had, she was in VA Beach and said she had decided to relax and enjoy her latter years. She vowed not live in fear, but to trust God for His grace. I do believe that He welcome her home with open arms!

Family, it was her desire that each of you be saved and to know God personally. This is the way that you can honor her memory.

*Love,
Wanda Thames Lawrence*

“ A friendship from over the years. RIH Pam you fought a good fight. No more pain. God has you now. He needed another angel to add to the Hollywood Heights crew. You/your smile will be missed.
