“ My sister Pansy Peterson fought a tough battle with cancer and went home to glory on Jan 11, 2014. I can't believe she's gone! Mama always said Pam was "her right hand girl!" She was mine too!! She's missed terribly by all who knew her! We miss her jokes, her laughter, and her cooking! I still feel you near Pam! I love you and still miss you! My heart still hurts! Love, your only sister, Shelia

It's been 2 and a half years since my friend left this life and my heart still reminds me of the times that we and our families shared together! The more I see pictures of you the more my heart recalls all of the times we had shared with one another and our families! My love and respect has never waxed cold! I love and miss you so much! Sleep well until that great getting up when the trumpet will sound and the dead in Christ shall rise! I miss you Pansy Ruth Peterson! With so much love and respect to you and your family Scroggs!

“ To Pansy's loving family: We have lost an angel on earth. I will cherish memories I have of working with her at Robinson Health Clinic. She was a wonderful nurse, soldier, co-worker, and friend. Her smile would light up her surroundings! Her expression of love and self-less devotion to others were true witness of Gods love and Grace. Now soar with heavenly angels dear Pansy.

With Love

“ My condolences; May memories of Ms. Peterson and the love of family surround you and give you strength in the days ahead. Please take time to look into Gods Word the Holy Bible it will bring you much comfort and hope. "I have hope toward God.....that there is going to be a resurrection." (Acts 24:15) "Your dead will live....they will rise up...." (Isaiah 26:19)

Deborah - January 15, 2014 at 05:08 AM

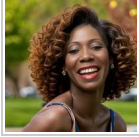

Thank you Debora, God's Word is what is getting us through. Be blessed. Thank you for loving my sister. Sherrie

Shelia Woods Hinds - February 05, 2014 at 05:16 PM

Thank you so much Deborah. Yes, the Word of God & His Spirit also, continues to give us strength, hope, & comfort in all the trials of life, including moving forward without our dear sister. As you have blessed us here, may God do to you also my friend. Thank you again for these words.

“ I am sorry to read about the passing of your loved one. The loss of a loved one grieves the heart and makes us yearn for tomorrow, when Jehovah God keeps the promise he made at Rev 21:3-4 when death, mourning, outcry, pain and sorrow will be eliminated. Isn't that good news, these things that cause mankind so much pain will be eliminated.

The sadness of a loved one is truly heartfelt. A life well lived and shared by many gives hope to those who read of Pansy's life. We are reminded that we make a good name for ourselves and a "good name is better than good oil." We know that Jesus gives up hope of the resurrection. May the family be comforted by the Bible's hope of seeing her again.

Grace - January 21, 2014 at 07:57 AM

Thank you Peggy and Grace. We are comforted in our thoughts of Pansy and the legacy she leaves behind, a legacy of love and compassion and also by the promises in God's Word. Thank you, Pansy lil sis, Sherrie
