“ I offer sincere condolences to the family. I am saddened to learn of Patara's passing but at peace knowing where she will spend eternity. She was a Kingdom messenger, and she was a bright light to all around her. Patara was genuine, unique, and her presence will be missed.

“ I met Patara during her time with Surry County Schools. She always brought light into every room she entered. We never dallied in the "small talk" but went straight for the very thought-provoking conversations about life; I loved hearing about her walk with the Lord. I didn't know her very long, but I will forever cherish my memories with her. I am blessed to have a personalized, signed copy of Loving Him, so her words and her incredible positivity will live on. My prayers are with her family & friends left behind on earth, for I know she is walking streets of gold today.

“ Patara was and is one of a kind. I will never forget our time together. We’ve laughed, we’ve cried, we’ve lived, and we’ve loved for many, many years. Until we laugh again in Heaven, live on in our hearts, my friend. I love you.

“ I met Patara while attending Fayetteville State University. She was always an optimistic person with a charismatic personality who loved Christ! And, years later, we reconnected again at SC State University. I remember it was like a wonderful reunion seeing her again. I offer my deepest condolences to her family. She was a true gem!

“ Patara was a treasured friend. I will miss her sweet smile and tender heart. But as one of her texts to me said, 'we will worship again together in heaven some day.'

“ Precious Thompson Family:
Condolences of the consoling love of JESUS are flowing your way. I had the sweet pleasure of meeting Patara at church when we fellowshipped in the Pines. From then to this day, beloved Patara left an indelible impression as the "Thompson" in each of you continue to do. This experience is not foreign to any of us even though, no matter the age, we are never ready to give our loved ones up over to death. Stay focused on JESUS; HE is your/our POWER SOURCE!
Love you always! *NLB

“ Patara, or Rudy as her family called her when she was younger, was so loved! She was loved by her maternal siblings; brother Richard and her sisters Teresa, Karen(deceased), and Robin. She was short in stature but had a huge heart. We will miss her spunk, her smile with big dimples, and the many years that we should have had. God bless my "sister-cousin". Until we meet again. I love you Tara..... even now.

My condolences to the family.
Patara was a sweet young lady who loved working with children. She also had a desire to minister as a Chaplain. she asked me several years ago about requirements....our last conversation she said that was something she planned to pursue. Death is not the end for the believer..she has Eternal life. God bless her family and dear friends

“ One of the very sweetest ladies I've ever met. Patara always had a very contagious smile and kind words. It was such a blessing to get to know her. Surry County Schools was very blessed to have her helping our children. Many tears have been shed at this sad time. "I will always love you Miss Patara"!
